

Doctoral Fellowship

Position

The position starts on September 1st 2024 (this date can be adapted to suit specific situations), with a contract duration of 3 years. The candidate dissertation will be co-directed by Sébastien Laffitte and another faculty member.

Environment

The candidate will be part of the THEMA, the research lab in economics at CYU Cergy-Paris University. He/She will be provided office space and computer facilities and well as funding for its research activity. The Candidate will also benefit from the active and stimulating research environment in economics in the Paris area.

Missions

The doctoral researcher will carry out research on the following areas: Public Economics, Public Finance. A focus on the following topics is not mandatory but appreciated: International Taxation, Tax evasion and tax avoidance, Corporate Taxation, Tax Havens, International Economics.

Profile

The candidate is expected to hold a research master degree in economics by the starting date.

The candidate should have strong analytical skills and a high standard of research excellence. French is not a requirement. Successful candidates should be able to work independently and collaboratively.

All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, race, gender, skin color, religion, nationality, sexual orientation, or disability.

Submission

Application must be sent to sebastien.laffitte@cyu.fr and include a i) CV (including a transcript of records), ii) a cover letter highlighting the qualifications and skills of the candidate that match the requirements of the position, iii) a writing sample (e.g. master thesis).

Applications should be sent before April 15th.

Please contact me for more information at: sebastien.laffitte@cyu.fr